Abstract (en)
A plastics container (1) for storing and/or transporting objects, such as bottles, comprises a base (2) and at least two side walls (3). Visible markings (11), such as a brand or bottle type, are provided by a marking element which is partially embedded in a layer (7) moulded onto an area the container. The area may be part of a handle section (6) of the container, and the moulded layer (7) may consist of a relatively soft material.
