Abstract (en)

[origin: EP1598184A2] The printing press has at least one printing tower (T1, T2, T3) which has two stacked satellite printing units. There is at least one further printing unit, possibly two, in a plane above the printing locations of the upper satellite printing unit. There may be two further printing units which can print in one color on the reverse side of printed webs (B10, B20, B30, B40).
