Abstract (en)

A securing arrangement (10) for a stair covering is mountable on a stair comprising a stair tread and a stair riser. The securing arrangement comprises a first member (14), a second member (16) extending downwardly over the stair riser, and a third member (18) securable to the first member. The third member (18) comprises a downwardly extending portion (22) extending over the second member (16). The arrangement also includes an insertion member (32) insertable between the downwardly extending portion (22) and the second member (16) to lock the third member (18) to the first and second members (14, 16).
