Abstract (en)

[origin: EP1612362A1] The window panel (1) is supported within a frame (2) and operated via an electric drive (3) having a drive motor (4) attached to the window panel or the frame and an operating element (5) supported within a reception element (6) attached to the frame or the window panel. The reception element is removable via an opening (10) in the frame or the window panel, to allow emergency opening of the closed window panel.
