Abstract (en)

[origin: EP1635112A2] The arrangement has a built-in element (3) and holding elements (4) for holding a ceiling and/or raster attachment arrangement (11) and similar for fixing into holders (5) of the built-in element. The holding elements are L-shaped and have a horizontal leg on a vertical leg (6). The holders guide the vertical leg and have a stop surface. The holding elements can be inserted into the holders with the vertical legs and displaced as far as the attachment position, in which the horizontal leg contacts the stop surface.
