Abstract (en)

[origin: WO2004110898A1] Kit (1) for preparing beverages and/or infusions made from soluble food products, which can be mixed or diluted in water, comprised of a single-use container (2), which contains at least one food product (3); at least one sweetener (4); and a stirring utensil (5). The container comprises a flexible sheet (2), hermetically sealed by at least one of its edges (8), containing in its interior the food products (3), the sweeteners (4) and the stirring utensils. In a second embodiment, it is comprised of an essentially rigid cup (7), closed by a sheet, in the form of a lid. The kit for beverages and/or infusions is also comprised of a tray (11), provided with independent receptable (12), adapted for containing the food products (3), the sweeteners (4) and the stirring utensil (5), the receptables being closed by a sheet (10), in the form of a lid.
