Abstract (en)
Well has a plastic housing section (1) at the bottom forming a sump and a middle plastic housing section (2) forming a well shaft. The lower housing section tapers to the ground (9) enabling the middle housing section to spring back inwards against the closing part (7) of the lower section. The top of the middle section is closed off by a third plastic housing section (3) which has a lid (5) on it with a closable inspection hole (4).
