Abstract (en)
[origin: DE10332840A1] Method for transmission of pay plan information to a radio communications terminal (UA) or mobile phone, whereby a transfer signal (FIA1) for transfer of the pay plan information is always transmitted in using the same syntax. Similarly if a user is using services provided by a second service provider, the cost of these too are transmitted using the same syntax. The invention also relates to a corresponding radio communication or mobile phone system, a mobile phone or communications terminal and a network components or groups of network components for implementation of the inventive method.
