Abstract (en)
[origin: EP1647646A2] The profile has a connection area (13) for the connection of a wall unit with a neighboring component of a movable wall. An attachment area (5) is provided for attaching the edge profile to a wall body of the wall unit. A fixing groove (17) is provided between the attachment area and the connection area at a side of the profile, for fixing of an attached part, where the groove is inclined to the connection area. An independent claim is also included for a wall unit comprising an edge profile.
