Abstract (en)
[origin: EP1671892A2] A bin liner has a liner body (2) with two interconnected side walls (3,4) along side seams (7,8), an opening (12) between side wall edges extended crosswise to the side seams and hems (5,6) that stretch from side seam to side seam and run on the same edges of the side walls. There are also flexible pull tapes (13,14) in the hems and links (17,18) for the hems one below the other. An independent claim is also included for a dustbin/bin liner linkage, e.g. with draw tapes.
