Abstract (en)

[origin: EP1676780A1] Method for unpacking and re-packing packing drums with containers received in a re-packing unit comprises lifting packing units using ejectors passing through the openings in the base of the re-packing units during the removal of re-packing units of the packing drums. An independent claim is also included for an arrangement for unpacking and re-packing packing drums with containers received in a re-packing unit. Preferred Features: The packing units of a mixed group are inserted against the ejectors lying in the re-packing unit by lowering. The packing units are removed from the re-packing unit of the packing drums as the same group.
