Abstract (en)

[origin: EP1680981A1] One piece seat has a curved bowl crossbar (1), and a backrest as well as the upper end of a backrest. Two ends are provided on the cross bar and a tensioning pole is assigned between the two ends. A knitted one-piece (4) is attached to a piping seam (4a) allowing the crossbar (1) and the tensioning pole to run. The piping seam (4a) is at the lower surface of the knitted one-piece and provided with openings. The openings (4b, 4c) in the circulating seam (4a) are on the left and right front boundary region of the lower surface of the knitted one piece. An independent claim is included for a method for manufacture.
