Abstract (en)

[origin: FR2862260A1] The seat, having a back frame (11) connected rigidly to a lower part (2) of the vehicle structure by a support (12) and fixing (13), has the top of the back frame connected rigidly by another fixing (15) to an upper part (17) of the structure. The seat has a base frame that can be moved vertically and rotated about a horizontal axis relative to the back frame, and a covering that can be moved vertically in relation to the back frame.
