Abstract (en)
[origin: EP1688070A1] The shelf has two vertical supports (1a, 1b), at which shelf elements (2) by means of assembly elements (4a, 4b) are fastenable at different heights. Lighting devices (7) for the shelf elements are provided with electricity supplied using the supports. The supports consist of an electrically conductive material and supply the lighting devices with electric energy from an electric supplying circuit. The assembly elements have an electrical contact connected with the support.
