Abstract (en)
[origin: GB2407030A] A seat assembly for use in a vehicle, has a front seat (10) having a forward-facing side (24a) defining a back rest for a passenger and a rear-facing side (24b), and a child seat assembly (30). A mounting arrangement (12) is provided on the seat assembly for detachably mounting the child seat assembly to the rear-facing side of the front seat at a lower region thereof. In one embodiment, the mounting arrangement comprises anchors (36) or the like for an industry standard child seat mounting system such as ISOFIX or LATCH.
