Abstract (en)
[origin: EP1698577A2] Suction sheet table comprises suction holes (14) arranged in suction hole tracks (15) and suction openings (17) in one or more suction opening tracks (18). Each suction opening track is assigned to each suction hole track. Each suction hole (14) has a suction surface (16) and each suction opening has a suction surface (19). The suction surface (16) is larger than the suction surface (19). Suction openings (23) having further suction surfaces (24) are arranged in an inlet region (1.1) of the suction sheet table. The further suction surfaces are larger than the suction surface (19) and are as large as the suction surface (16). Preferred Features: The suction openings (17, 23) are arranged in the suction opening tracks.
