Abstract (en)
[origin: EP1700644A2] In a car workshop with three-dimensional parts (1) for example car bodies, an exhaust gas hood (3) with hollow body is placed above the car. The hood has at least one, and preferably many, suction openings (4) on the side facing the car. The exhaust gas hood has at least one suction unit (5). At least one lighting unit (7) is built into the suction hood.
