Abstract (en)

[origin: DE102005012370B3] The module (30) has a guide body (31), a spring (32) and a cable fixing element (33) on which the spring acts. The cable fixing element is made of metal or metallized plastic. The cable fixing element has at least one latching protrusion (42) and the guide body has at least one latching depression so that the spring can latch in the guide body under tension.
