Abstract (en)
[origin: WO2005065485A1] The invention relates to a drawer pull-out guide which comprises a body bar (2), a center bar (3) mounted so as to be displaced relative thereto, and a pull-out bar (5) mounted so as to be displaced relative to the center bar. The movement of the center bar is synchronized by means of a control roller (6). Said control roller is mounted with a hard body and a soft body on a shaft having an elliptical cross-section.
