Abstract (en)

Magazine tube containing cartridges that is detachable from the firearm. The set consists of a receiver base (1) for the magazine tube (2). The rear end is screw shaped for attaching to the receiver frame of the firearm, the other end has a mechanism to lock the magazine tube in place by means of spring loaded catch. The magazine tube (2) contains a cartridge feeding spring (6) with stop collar. The magazine tube mouth has tapered collar that blocks the cartridge from ejecting unless the collar is pressed into the receiver base.
