Abstract (en)
The item comprises at least one base framework (1) provided with support elements (4, 5a, 5b) on which is supported at least one movable frame (2) fitted with a plurality of tension elements (3a, 3c, 3b) to support at least one seat cushion (30). Some of said support elements (4, 5a, 5b) are arranged at different heights and are susceptible to be selectively used to support the movable frame (2) in at least two different positions. A multiple place seat furniture item can be formed by supporting a multiple place movable frame (2) or various individual movable frames (2) on one base framework (1), or with various individual base frameworks (1) joined together.
