Abstract (en)

[origin: WO2005063501A1] The invention relates to an arrangement and a method for producing a personalisation sheet (10) for personalising sheet-type documents, such as visas, vehicle documents, coupons and the like. Said arrangement comprises means (22) for applying an individual sheet identifier (16) both to a personalisation section (12) and to a control section (14) of the personalisation sheet (10). The inventive arrangement also comprises detection means (30) for detecting personalisation data specific to the person or the case in question, and means (40) for applying the personalisation data to the personalisation section (12) and the control section (14) of the personalisation sheet (10).
