Abstract (en)

[origin: EP1714928A2] The method involves guiding a presenting strip (5) of a material web (2) through a circumferential area of a carrying drum (4) into a reject bin, into a dissolver or on a conveyor belt. A medium (9) is inserted between the drum and the strip during the guidance of the strips through the area of the drum. The drum is sprayed with the medium in the area in which the strip is accumulated on the drum during the guidance of the strips.
