Abstract (en)

The desk has a passageway barrier with a movable door leaf (13) for blocking a person passageway (19) that is directed to the desk, in a usage position. A wall (6) laterally limits the person passageway, where the leaf forms a part of the wall in a non-usage position. The wall has an opening to receive the door leaf provided in the non-usage position. The opening limits a wall section, which is the part of the wall.
