Abstract (en)

The installation has storage spaces (5) associated with a reversible seat (1), where beauty care apparatuses (2) are housed in the spaces. Other storage spaces receive a head of the seat and accessories. Adjustment and/or control units are placed on a control panel (4) disposed at the head. The panel has a socket for plugging supply cords. Connection units (7) disposed under the seat connect control units to the corresponding inputs (21) of the apparatus and the socket to the corresponding outputs (22) of the apparatus.
