Abstract (en)

[origin: EP1724114A2] In a web offset printing machine used for a sleeve technology process, rubber offset blankets (4, 6) are slid onto a rubber cylinder (2, 3). Printing plates are placed on the cylinders (10, 11). The print plate ends are anchored in slits within the cylinder. The rubber cylinders (2, 3) have twice the circumference of that of the plate cylinder (10, 11).
