Abstract (en)
[origin: FR2867112A1] The component has an instrument panel with parts (8, 9) that are parallel to vision axis (V1) of a driver of a vehicle and that extend laterally to a frontal portion (10) of the component. The frontal portion is orthogonal to the vision axis. The parts (8, 9) are placed on a semi-reflective glass pane. The glass pane is formed of a frontal portion (6), and left and right lateral parts (12, 13).
