Abstract (en)

[origin: EP1733879A2] The machine has at least one forme cylinder with at least four printing plates (56.1-56.3) arranged adjacent to each other in the axial direction, register elements (51-54) on the forme cylinder associated with the printing plates and register elements (57.1-57.3) on printing plates that interact with the forme cylinder register elements. Each of several register elements arranged adjacent to each other on each printing plate interacts with a register element on the forme cylinder. An independent claim is also included for a method of manufacturing printing plate for an inventive machine.
