Abstract (en)

An item of baby clothing for use with a baby carrier is provided. The clothing can be fitted to the baby whilst the baby is in a carrier, therefore preventing the need to remove the baby from the carrier to fit the clothing. The clothing is provided with an opening and strap arrangement to allow it to fit around a baby carrier. A reversible hood is also provided for use with the clothing. The clothing can also be worn by a baby when not in a carrier.
