Abstract (en)
[origin: WO2005113266A1] There is disclosed a releasable towing attachment for a vehicle having a movable manipulating arm; a vehicle having a movable manipulating arm and such a towing attachment; and a method of towing a load using such a vehicle. In an embodiment of the invention, a releasable towing attachment (12) for a vehicle (10) having a movable manipulating arm (14) is disclosed, for connecting a load (46) to the vehicle. The releasable towing attachment has a substantially rigid body (24) which is releasably secured to the vehicle, and a towing member (16) coupled to the substantially rigid body. The towing member is coupled to the load to thereby connect the load to the vehicle, such that the vehicle may tow the load.
