Abstract (en)
[origin: WO2005123538A1] The invention relates to a bottle fixture set which is used to fill and transport hair dyes or intensive colourations having a creamy or gel-like consistency, in addition to developers and hair care products for domestic use. Said bottle fixture set comprises a bottle (1) which can be closed and compressed for the developer, a rigid container (5) which comprises lower (5) and upper (9) closeable openings and which receives the hair dye or the intensive colourations, and a piston (10) in addition to a bottle (12) for a hair care product. The neck of the bottle comprises an opening (8) which is disposed on the base of the container (5), and after removing the closure (3,4) of the bottle (1) and subsequently removing the cap (7), it can be inserted into in the opening (2) of the neck of the bottle (1), and the piston (10), which is in the container (5), can be displaced to the base of the container (5) by means of the filled bottle (12), such that the hair dye or intensive colouration is emptied from the container (5) into the bottle (1).
