Abstract (en)
[origin: EP1760394A2] The apparatus has a removable lamp support with an optical system. The support has a connection device with power supply integrated to the apparatus. The support has a slide assembly (1) with a primary reflector (3), an upper reflector (4) and a joint (5). The joint seals the assembly with respect to a compartment receiving electrical accessories. The assembly has two arms (2) with a pre-galvanized laminated plate (8). An independent claim is also included for a removable support assembly used in a lighting apparatus.
