Abstract (en)
[origin: EP1785367A1] The package has a rear side (11) and molded front side (12), which exhibits a receptacle area (13) accessibly arranged from outside. The area extends in direction of the rear side, and is aligned in the outline of an object e.g. scissor, of purchase. An inner area is formed between the front side and backside, where the inner area is bordered by the front side, rear side and the receptacle area.
