Abstract (en)
[origin: EP1787537A2] The armor has a T or L shaped catch section that is arranged in or adjacent to a slit opening and extending parallel to the slit opening in cross section. T or L side piece (12B) of the T or L shaped catch section extends approximately parallel to planar units and a T- bar (12A) extends right angled to the planar units, and forms a catch strip for a knife blade that is directed or lead in a direction of the slit opening.
