Abstract (en)
[origin: WO2006013324A1] A carton is provided for holding one or more items, such as sandwiches. The carton (4) includes a plurality of walls which are joined together when assembled in such a manner so as to define, a closed carton of pre-defined shape. Frangible means (58, 60) are provided along a part or whole of at least a first wall (6, 8) to allow a part of said first wall to be separated or removed on breaking of said frangible means. At least one further wall (12, 14) provided adjacent a remaining portion of the first wall is hingedly connected to a second wall (52). The remaining portion of the first wall or the at least one further wall is movable relative to the second wall on removal of said frangible means to open the carton.
