Abstract (en)

An engaging assembly (10) for a floor covering, the engaging assembly comprising a first engaging member (12) for engaging a floor, and a second engaging member (14) for engaging a floor covering. The first engaging member comprises a first securing formation (16), and the second engaging member comprises a second securing formation (18). The first and second securing formations are co-operable with each other to allow the first engaging member to be connected to the second engaging member.
