Abstract (en)
A merchandise display implement (1) used while being hooked on a frame bar (61), including an opening portion (13) capable of housing merchandise (50,53) in a condition of rowing the same, a hanger portion (16) to be hooked on the frame bar, and a supporting leg (40) capable of being mounted on a plane surface (60) is constructed. Even though a shelf or a board is not provided, the merchandise can be displayed in a plane-surface manner when only the frame bar is installed on a wall in a shop. Further, since the merchandise can also be mounted on a plane surface by a supporting leg, the merchandise can also be displayed on a board, a shelf, or the like. Furthermore, only by engaging a hook (21) with a hook engaging hole (24), the merchandise can also be displayed in a condition in which a plurality of merchandise display implements is connected to each other.
