Abstract (en)

[origin: WO2006053973A1] The invention relates to a tag for displaying the prices of food products, comprising: a rear panel (1), and a front panel (8) which is equipped with display windows (8a, 8b, 8c, 8d, 8e and 8f) and a plurality of rotary disks (2, 3, 4, 5, 6 and 7) which are supported by shafts and which are disposed between the rear panel (1) and the front panel (8). The aforementioned rotary disks are preferably accessed by means of at least one of the edges of the tag and comprise inscriptions which can be read selectively through the respective display windows. The invention is characterised in that the shafts of the rotary disks (2, 3, 4, 5, 6 and 7) are essentially supported by the rear panel (1) of the tag and are independent of the front panel (8) thereof.
