Abstract (en)

[origin: WO2006059038A1] The invention relates to a shelf which is intended for a piece of furniture, particularly a refrigerator or similar, comprising a panel (3) which is used to support articles and at least one plastic structure (4) which is disposed on at least one part of the periphery of the panel (3), said structure (4) being arranged such that the shelf (1) can be mounted in the frame of the piece of furniture. The invention is characterised in that at least one of the two faces of the structure (4) in the plane of the panel is equipped with a fixing means (15, 16) for fixing an accessory (2) which, in the use position, is intended to be placed in the free space on the corresponding side of the shelf (1).
