Abstract (en)

The present invention refers to a perfected advertising stand which unfolds automatically of the type featuring a folding cardboard panel (2). The proposed stand belongs to the type of folding cardboard stands consisting of at least one advertising panel (1) superimposed on a cardboard panel (2) which has internal transversal reinforcements (2.1) having orifices (2.2,2.3) in the ends of which elastic means (3) are inserted which, when in the mounted position, tense the lateral walls. The stand is characterised in that the cardboard panel (2) has fold lines which in conjunction with a series of cuts (2.1.2,2.1.3) arrange the advertising panel (1) in mounted position in such a way that its profile describes a curve.
