Abstract (en)

[origin: EP1834804A2] A cover sheet (10) with a desired format height is separated from the cover web (4) after unwinding the cover web. The separated cover sheet is fed to the inner portion (2) of the printed product (14) before placing the cover sheet around the inner portion and connecting the cover sheet. An independent claim is also included for a producing apparatus for bound printed products.
