Abstract (en)

[origin: FR2878509A1] The package has a cover with large and various indications. A tray (15) has two support points (25, 26) formed by a reduced zone of a free end (22) of an assembling rim (21). The tray has two support points (27, 28) arranged closer to an average base plane than plane of upper side of the tray. The support points (25-28) form a polygon above which centre of gravity of the package is located. An independent claim is also included for a food packaging system including food packages.
