Abstract (en)
[origin: EP1840043A1] Three-dimensionally shaped packaging product manufacturable by dry forming is provided. Furthermore, an airlaid material and a method of manufacturing a three- dimensionally shaped packaging product are provided. The three-dimensional packagings are prepared from airlaid fluff comprising natural fibres by treatment in a heated press. The three-dimensional packaging has a very fine surface finish and the manufacturing process requires substantially less energy than the traditional wet method.
