Abstract (en)
[origin: EP1847461A2] The plastic container includes a body (1), forming a storage space (15), and a cover, wherein an integrity guarantee element (3) is formed between the cover (2) and body of the container, and with first-time opening of the container can be removed. The integrity guarantee element is a plastic band which via design break lines is connected to the cover and/or to the body of the container. A sealing element (4) is welded or screwed onto the body of the container at the inlet opening end, or is a snap-on sealing cap.
