Abstract (en)

[origin: WO2006087058A1] The invention concerns a tag holder comprising support means (2) for displaying information, such as for instance a price tag, as well as fixing means adapted to co-operate with a slide (4) provided at the front of a display surface, such as in particular the surface of a shelf (13) of a rack. The invention is characterized in that the fixing means (3) consist of a staple (5) including: terminal engagement means (9, 16) adapted to co-operate at least at a lateral end (10, 11) corresponding to the slide; hinge means (6) adapted to enable the latter in a first position of the staple to be inserted into the slide (4) and in a second position the staple (5) to be internally locked.
