Abstract (en)

[origin: DE202005002740U1] The device has support carriers (4), each with a plugging part inserted into a corresponding socket (1) that is inserted into a receptacle. Holders (3) have flanges fixed on support structures (7), and fixing units for fixing the sockets on the holders. Each socket has a flange connected to a sleeve, and a locking unit engages a plug-in part into the sleeve. The plug-in part has a counter unit interacting with the locking unit. An independent claim is also included for a structure having a device for holding articles.
