Abstract (en)

A carton (100), comprising: a tray (110) including an end panel (170), a first reinforcing panel (290), and a second reinforcing panel (290). The end panel (170) comprises a first handle aperture (220) and the first reinforcing panel (290) comprises a first handle cutout (320). The second reinforcing panel (290) comprises a second handle cutout (320), and the first and second reinforcing panels (290) are disposed along one of opposite surfaces of the end panels (170), such that said first and second handle cutouts (320) are aligned with each other to form a second handle aperture (320). The second handle aperture (320), in turn, is aligned with said first handle aperture (220). The carton also comprises a lid (120) including a lid end panel (370) with a third handle aperture (420). The lid (120) is attached to said tray (110) such that said lid end panel (370) is disposed on one of opposite surfaces of said end panel (170) of said tray (110) such that said third handle aperture (420) is aligned with said first and said second handle apertures (220, 320).
