Abstract (en)
[origin: EP1862367A2] The support has track. The rotating light, flashing light, return beam elements and horns are arranged on a warning center support (14). The warning center support is arranged on the side of the track at a column (7) connected stationary with the track. The warning centre support is attached or attachable on a column laterally and upward distances by base of the rail (11) or a beam.
