Abstract (en)
[origin: WO2007118486A1] The invention relates to a greeting card envelope with a functional unit which activates an audible, visual, tactile and/or olfactory effect. In order to provide a greeting card envelope that works in highly reliable fashion and is inexpensive to produce, the greeting card envelope (1, 1') can be closed by means of a snap button (2) that is designed and connected to the functional unit in such a way that when the snap button (2) is opened the functional unit activates one or more effects.
