Abstract (en)

[origin: EP1870653A1] In a setting frame (1) for receiving material for burning, comprising rods (2) to be fixed together at distance via at least two bars (3, 4) to form a supporting grill, the bars are each in the form of a plug strip with several plug-in through-holes (5) for the rods transverse to an internal longitudinal passage. The rods are fixed by at least one common plug connector (7), inserted into the internal passage.
